LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS SABBATICAL REPLACEMENT POSITION IN ACCOUNTING

Lebanon Valley College invites applications for a full-time one-year sabbatical replacement position in accounting starting in August 2008. LVC is a private, residential, coeducational liberal arts college with approximately 1,650 students and a tradition of excellence in teaching. Located in south central Pennsylvania, the College is within a two-hour drive of Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington, D.C.

Consistently placed in the top tier of comparable institutions in the northeast, LVC is also ranked #1 in the Northeast in U.S. News & World Report's 2007 list of "Great Schools at Great Prices." LVC has enjoyed and benefited from a period of sustained growth including student enrollment and extensive new construction and renovation to existing facilities.

All candidates must hold a Masters Degree in accounting or business with an active CPA license, or a doctorate in accounting plus work experience, and have prior experience teaching financial and managerial accounting at the collegiate level.

One-year term appointments should have prior experience teaching Intermediate Accounting and one additional specialty with a preference for either Advanced Accounting or Governmental and Not-for-Profit Accounting. Candidates must have a prior record of excellence in teaching, be committed to assessing learning outcomes, and support the continuum of communications skills development woven throughout the curriculum.

Applications will be reviewed as received until the position is filled. Send a complete application, including cover letter, statements of teaching philosophy, scholarship, and professional development agenda, C.V., transcripts, and reference list to Dr. David V. Rudd, Chair, Department of Business and Economics, 101 N. College Avenue, Annville, PA 17003. Salary and rank are commensurate with qualifications.
